

PUBLIC NOTICE

I know and appreciate how important recycling is to this community. The closing of Tri-City Waste Paper hit our area hard. I have contacted several agencies close to us, and no one is recycling plastics right now. I will continue to search out companies that are willing to handle our plastic products, but as of right now, the only option is to take the plastic products to the Johnson County Transfer Station for disposal as household trash.

Mayor Mike Taylor